

Getting to know our

BOARD OF DIRECTORS
2017-2018

AMY DREWEL

President

Owner, Mosaic Insurance Alliance

Amy joined the board in 2011. She is the founder and owner of Mosaic insurance. Amy comes from a family that is deeply rooted in human services of Snohomish County. She joined Homage because, "I feel like it is my duty to make sure that this community doesn't forget about some of the most vulnerable populations and their needs." Amy spends her summers crabbing on Whidbey and her winters crafting and cooking. In her spare time, she loves to travel and explore Washington State.

DAN J. LEACH

Treasurer

*Sr. Financial Advisor
D.A. Davidson & Co.*

Dan joined the board in 2012. He is a Sr. Financial Advisor with D.A. Davidson & Co. in Everett. His background in business administration and finance bring great value to the board of directors. Dan joined Homage because, "I believe that in order to build a strong community, we must address the issues facing the growing population of vulnerable older adults and people with disabilities." Dan lives in Everett with his wife and 2 kids. In his free time, he enjoys spending time with his family, traveling, golf and competes in triathlons.

JULIE BOGUE-GARZA

Vice President

Human Resource Professional

Julie joined the board in 2013. As a human resource executive, Julie has devoted her career to empowering people to maximize their talents in the areas in which they are most passionate. She joined Homage because, "I have a passion for giving back to those who have given so greatly to all of us. The beauty of providing services that give peace of mind, independence, and respect to seniors and people with disabilities is that we all thrive as a community." Julie is a Seattle native and has been happily married for 28 years with one grown daughter. She is a music enthusiast and enjoys attending musical events highlighting all types of music genre.

CHAR PIKE, RN

Secretary

Char joined the board 2015. She is a retired as the Director of Nursing with Providence Hospital's Transitional Care Services (Everett) and has worked in senior healthcare for over 25 years. Char has been involved in a variety of community services including: Lake Stevens Fire Department, Everett Kiwanis and Volunteers of America. She joined Homage because, "I feel very blessed to have been given many opportunities to help and be involved in this community." Char was born and raised in Snohomish County and has been married for 40 years. She has 3 grown sons and 12 grandchildren.

CARRIE A.
ZAMBRANO

2nd Vice President

Director, Clinical Services Operations, Regence Blue Cross Blue Shield

Carrie joined the board in 2015. She has 17 years experience in the healthcare insurance industry and is currently the director of ASO (administrative services only) for Regence Blue Cross Blue Shield. Carrie joined Homage because, "I believe that what we can learn from seniors and people with disabilities will enrich our lives." As the primary caregiver for her elderly parents, she understands the importance of independence, dignity and quality of life.

JAMES C. M.
LEE, MD

Immediate Past President

*Facility Medical Director
The Everett Clinic*

Dr. Lee joined the board in 2013. He is the Facility Medical Director at the Everett Clinic in Mill Creek. His expertise in gerontology, care coordination, palliative care and quality of care bring a unique perspective to the board and the organization. Dr. Lee joined Homage because, "I have seen first-hand how Homage Senior Services improves the quality of life for older adults. The agency's mission matches the goals of the Everett Clinic in meeting the needs of our community." Dr. Lee graduated from Irvine College of Medicine in California and speaks Mandarin Chinese.

Getting to know our

BOARD OF DIRECTORS
2017-2018

VAN DINH-KUNO

Board Member

Executive Director, Refugee and Immigrant Services Northwest

Van joined the board in 2010. As Executive Director of Refugee & Immigrant Services Northwest, Van runs the most visible and comprehensive agency serving refugees and immigrants. She also serves on numerous task forces including Providence Hospital and United Way. Van is a valuable resource to human service organizations, educational institutions and law enforcement.

ELIZABETH MARSHALL, MD

Board Member

*Family Medicine
The Everett Clinic*

Dr. Marshall joined the board in 2017. She was a Family Physician for the Everett Clinic since 1995. While working at the Everett Clinic she obtained her Master's Degree in Theology. Dr. Marshall has chaired the Ethics Committee at the clinic, addressing issues providers face such as legalization of marijuana and the Death with Dignity Act. She started an End of Life program that facilitates patient care and end of life decision making at the clinic. Homage and the community we serve, will benefit enormously from her level of expertise.

BOB BOLERJACK

Board Member

Executive Director of Governmental Affairs, City of Everett

Bob joined the board in 2016. He is the Executive Director of Governmental Affairs for the City of Everett. He previously worked for 25 years as an Editor for The Daily Herald. Bob joined Homage because, "After all they've given us, our seniors deserve the support they need in their golden years. As our senior population grows, I'm proud to play a small part in guiding the support that Homage provides." Bob and his wife, Wanda, have lived in Snohomish County for 30 years. In their spare time, they like to get outside and enjoy the beauty and activities that make this such a special place to live.

KEVIN CLAY, MD

Board Member

Chief of Ambulatory Medicine, Providence Regional Medical Center, Everett

Dr. Clay joined the board in 2017. He is currently the Chief of Ambulatory Medicine at Providence Regional Medical Center in Everett. He joined Homage because, "As a PCP for 30 years I have seen the challenges seniors face as they mature. I want to work with Homage to set up the best services available for our seniors so they can stay in their own home as long as possible." Dr. Clay graduated from Loma Linda University Medical School in 1984. He lives in Arlington with his wife of 36 years and has 2 adult sons. He enjoys lifestyle education and travel.

DUBS HERSCHLIP

Board Member

Attorney, Dubs Ari Tanner Herschlip PLLC Law Firm

Dubs joined the board in 2017. He is a managing member of Mukilteo Law Firm where he offers traditional legal services including counseling and representation before Washington Federal, District, Superior and Appellate Courts. Dubs joined Homage because, "I want to make a positive difference in the lives of seniors in my community and to join the inspirational members of the Homage board and staff in their visionary work." He enjoys spending time with his family, mountain biking, paddle boarding, and hiking.

PAMELA E. LESENE

Board Member

President, Everett School District Board

Pam retired from the U.S. Navy as a captain and currently serves as President of the Everett School Board. She is actively involved in a variety of civic and educational activities in Snohomish County and joined the Homage Senior Services board in 2011. Pam is passionate about maintaining a community in which older adults and people with disabilities have the resources they need to live with independence and dignity.

RICK RESSEGUIE

Board Member

Sr. VP Commercial Banking Manager, Umpqua Bank

Rick joined the board in 2011. He has 40 years' experience in the banking industry and currently serves as a Sr. VP in commercial banking. He brings a wide-breadth of knowledge to Homage Senior Services board of directors. Rick joined Homage because, "I believe that everyone- from children to elders- should have the opportunity to thrive in a community that promotes growth, opportunity, quality of life and help for each other."

LISA SILVESTRE

Board Member

VP of National Accounts & Federal Employee Program Operations, Premera

Lisa joined the board in 2016. She has 35 years of experience at Premera and currently serves as Vice President of National Accounts & Federal Employee Operations Program. Lisa supports a culture of customer obsession across the leadership team she manages. She joined Homage because, "Community involvement is super important to me, and supporting a great organization whose focus is on helping those most vulnerable is a good fit for me." Lisa lives in Kirkland with her husband and has 2 adult children who also reside in Kirkland.

